

Lydia's Guild

2010 Fine Arts and Craft Show

Welcome! Lydia's Guild invites fine artists and craftspeople to participate in our 28th Holiday Fine Art and Craft Show. This year's show will once again be held at the historic Aldie Mansion in Doylestown, PA. This will be our 13th season at this very successful location. Lydia's Guild presents some of the finest craftsmen to the Bucks County area with 90 exhibitor spaces available. A tradition from its inception, a portion of Lydia's Guild show proceeds benefits local and national charitable organizations. A list of ministries that received contributions from Lydia's Guild in 2009 can be seen on our web site at www.LydiasGuild.com.

All artists, both new and returning, will be juried for the 2010 show. Applications will be juried as received until each category is filled. Notification of acceptance will be provided following each jurying session, starting in Spring 2010.

Lydia's Guild is open to professional craftspeople and artists of all media. Applicants are juried by photos and selected on the basis of quality, craftsmanship and uniqueness in each category. We believe Lydia's Guild is successful due to hard work, imagination and good organization. Lydia's Guild provides a venue to showcase skilled, talented craftspeople and fine artists who are the main attraction!

We are deeply appreciative of the fine craftspeople and artists who exhibit at Lydia's Guild and make every effort to support and promote their success. We are very excited about our 2010 Fine Art and Craft Show and look forward to having you be a part of it.

Pick-Up: Wednesday, November 10th 5:30– 10:00 No crafters permitted into the show until 5:30.

Displays: Photos and description of your display will help us to determine the location and size allocation within the Aldie Mansion. Your display area may include a backdrop on three sides providing a visual barrier between you and other crafters. Tables must have coverings to the floor on all four sides. Your display should also include props to showcase your work at various heights, NO FLAT TABLE TOPS. Your display should showcase your work to its best ability and provide a professional appearance to our shoppers. All aspects of your display must fit within the boundary of your display area. Electricity is available in each room for lighting. You must be sure your lights are attached to a surge protector, plugged in and working before you complete your set up. You will be notified of your space size at acceptance.

Tables: You may bring your own or rent one from the show at a cost of $14.00 per table.

Tagging: A Crafter Code will be assigned to each show participant. Your tag should include your crafter code, and price. Your crafter code identifies your items at check out and is used to record your sales at the registers during the show. You are paid by what is processed through the registers, less the commission. Please use a pricing gun or print carefully so the tags can be easily read. Your tags are the key to proper payment. We reserve the right to not display items that do not meet the standards of the show.

Inventory: Inventory sheets help us to determine pricing should an item come to the register without a tag. An inventory sheet with item descriptions and price is required.

Payment: Checks will be mailed out prior to November 24th.

Advertising: We will have printed post card show invitations available for your use and distribution at your fall shows. Please let us know how many you would like. If you would like your work shown on our website, please send us a digital picture.
